

Mobile Phone Policy (pupils)

1. Mobile phones may only be used before 8.55am, during break, lunch time and after 3.30pm.
2. During class time and in between classes mobile phones must be switched off. "On silent" and "on vibration" means the phone is on.
3. Under no circumstances may a pupil's mobile phone be turned on between 8.55am and 11.00am, 11.15am and 1.00pm and 1.45pm and 3.30pm unless specifically instructed to do so by a teacher or having received permission to do so, following a specific request.
4. Under no circumstances may a mobile phone or any other device be used to take or view photographs or videos in school at any time of the day. This includes before school, break time, lunch time and after school. Such material must never be passed on at any time.
5. Under no circumstances may a mobile phone or any other device be used for any form of offensive, indecent or inappropriate communication.
6. Mobile phones or their equivalent may be used to listen to music before school and during break and lunchtime. Pupils should be aware of the hazards of doing so while 'on the move.'
7. Pupils who break the rules concerning mobile phones will have their phones and/or ear phones confiscated. Such confiscated phones may be collected from the Principal's Secretary at 3.30pm. Where appropriate, parents may be invited to collect them.
8. Pupils who allow their phone to be used inappropriately by others may be held responsible for its misuse.
9. Pupils who break the rules concerning mobile phones will be given a punishment commensurate with their action. Habitual offenders may be given more severe punishments in line with the School Positive Behaviour Policy.
10. The School reserves the right to prohibit any pupil from bringing a mobile phone to school.
11. In school, pupils may access Internet resources outside the school network such as those provided by 3G/4G networks. However, they must always use their devices in accordance with our e-Safety and Acceptable use of the Internet Policy.

Note

Pupils are warned of the dangers of using mobile phones, especially with earphones in built up areas when the inability to hear traffic can lead to accidents.

This policy reflects the UN Convention of the Rights of the Child adopted as legally binding in 1999.

Article 19

1. States Parties shall take all appropriate legislative, administrative, social and educational measures to protect the child from all forms of physical or mental violence, injury or abuse, neglect or negligent treatment, maltreatment or exploitation, including sexual abuse, while in the care of parent(s), legal guardian(s) or any other person who has the care of the child.

Article 28

3. States Parties shall promote and encourage international cooperation in matters relating to education, in particular with a view to contributing to the elimination of ignorance and illiteracy throughout the world and facilitating access to scientific and technical knowledge and modern teaching methods. In this regard, particular account shall be taken of the needs of developing countries.
